DEDICATION

DEDICATION

(Mrs.) Vera Bancroft

"It is evident that many little kindnesses and timely acts of thoughtfulness
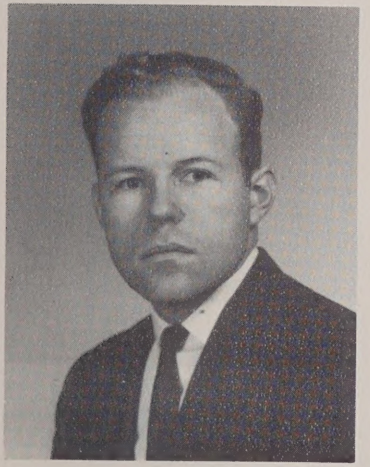
can be attained
only through a strong
spirit of cooperation."



Mr. David Wellwood

"Until philosophers are kings or until the rulers of the world have the spirit and power of a philosophy in which political greatness and wisdom meet---our cities will never be free
from their evils."

Mr. Earl Babineau

"The highest aristocracy
is that form of government
in which education
and discipline are qualifications for suffrage or holding office."

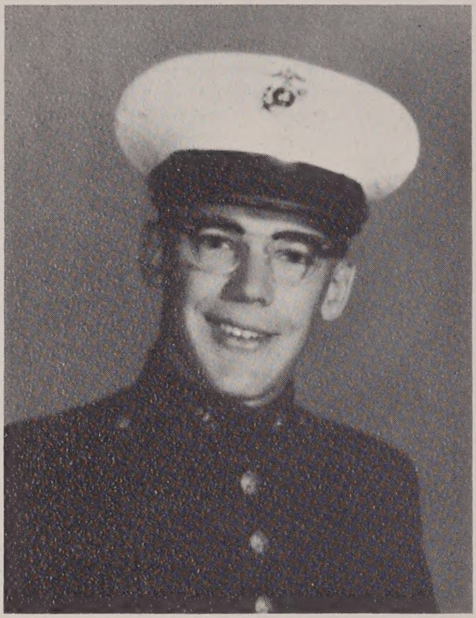
We, the class of 1966, sincerely and gratefully dedicate this yearbook to our class advisors, Mrs. Vera Bancroft, Mr. Earl Babineau and Mr. David Wellwood, for their patient guidance of us and hard work with us on our many class projects.

To you - Mrs. Vera Bancroft - since you are retiring from the teaching profession this June, we pay special tribute. For the past thirteen years, as Head of Vocational Homemaking Department, you yourself have set an example of right values, such as, courtesy, cooperation, industry, integrity and efficiency--qualities which have helped many young people establish happier and better homes.

A TRIBUTE



William J. Babineau

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points our how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who, at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly; so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

Class Song

Tune to "As Tears Go By" Words by Janet Nickless
and Marguerite Silvestri

Tonight our high school years are near their end;
To all of you the very best we send.
All of our plans and dreams, so near they seem,
The time has come to say farewell to you, tonight.

We won't forget our friends at Charlton High,
Or all the fun we had as years passed by.
Happy our memories will always be,
Remembering all the tasks we've planned; we did our best.

Our Senior year went by so very fast,
And yet we know that all we've done will last.
To you who follow in, the path we've been,
We leave you now to take our place when we have gone.

CLASS MOTTO: "No matter what the past has been, the best may still be ours."
CLASS COLORS: Cranberry, pink, and white
CLASS FLOWER: Pink Carnation

Freshman Class Report

Mark Gustafson

We, the class of 1966, began the first stage of our four-year journey through high school under the supervision of Mr. William Manning, Mrs. Nancy Tossey, and Mrs. Vera Bancroft.

Our first business was that of electing class officers. They were as follows: president-Beatrice Pelletier; vice-president-Carl Nale; secretary-Mark Gustafson; treasurer-Carol Miller and representative-Susan Hill.

We were proud of our record in the Magazine Drive, because in our Home Room, number 6, we brought in $450.78, which averaged $10.99 per student.

Next, on October 19, 1962 we held our Freshman Hop, which was quite a financial and social success.

Proud we were of our yearly honor pupils; namely, William Ball, Diane Dembkoski, Nancy Ide, David Plancon, Mary Reardon, Beatrice Pelletier, Marguerite Silvestri, and Helen Rebokis.

Eagerly, we awaited the September of our Sophomore Year-the second step in our four-year high school career.

Sophomore Class History

Janet Nickless

Under the direction of Mr. Goldberg and Mrs. Vera Bancroft, we began our Sophomore year with the following class officers: president, Mary Reardon; vice-president, Ann Marie Vienneau; secretary, Janet Nickless; treasurer, Linda Harsha; representative, Mary Cavanaugh.

Room 6 of the Sophomore class places second in the Senior High School Magazine Contest. Our Sophomore Hop was a very successful affair--both socially and financially, because of the work of our student committees and help of our advisors.

We regretfully lost Mr. Goldberg as one of our advisors, but we happily welcomed Mr. David Wellwood to room 6 as our new teacher and advisor.

This year we were happy to welcome an honor pupil, Donna Franklin, from Framingham, to our class as a new and cooperative member. Also we were most fortunate to have Judy Angell--a former C. H. S. pupil and excellent class worker, return to us.

We were proud of our honor students, who were Christine Cierpich, Gail Dunn, Nancy Ide, David Plancon, Bea Pelletier, Mary Reardon, Letha Rosenquist, and Audrey Vaundell.

In June of our second year at C. H. S., we were all anxiously awaiting our Junior Year, which promised our class rings, and most of all, our own much anticipated Junior Prom.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

By Janet Dawson

On September 9, 1964, sixty-four anxious Juniors entered Charlton High School ready to do whatever there was to be done. To guide us over the rough places were our class advisors, Mr. David Wellwood and Mr. Earl Babineau. The previous June we had elected to lead us Mark Gustafson, president; Brenda Darzen, vice-president; Janet Dawson, treasurer; Linda Harsha, secretary; and Mary Cavanaough, representative.

Early in the year, we held our successful Junior Hop, which netted us a sizeable profit for our treasury. The next big event was the long-awaited arrival of our class rings. They were to be the last of the old rings, but we loved them and were proud to be the owners of such coveted possessions. We thank Mrs. Emma Hammond for ably helping us in obtaining our precious property.

By the middle of our Junior year, we had regretfully lost these five students: William Babineau, James Osborn, Wilfred Inniciari, Ann Marie Vienneau, and Howard Ranks. Unfortunately, we did not gain any new students, so our roster dwindled to fifty-nine.

Now came our much anticipated Junior Prom. Our theme was "With A Song In My Heart"; and with the efforts of Mrs. Emma Hammond, Prom Advisor and Mrs. Shiela Glynn, Director of Art, the night of May 14 will long be remembered by everyone who attended this glorious event.

At the close of our Junior year, we were delighted to find that Highest Honors were earned by Linda Harsha, Mary Reardon, and David Plancon; while Honors were made by Linda Racicot, Helen Rebokis, Letha Rosenquist, Victoria Slipp, William Ball, Christine Cierpich, Janet Dawson, Gail Dunn, Nancy Ide, Susan Labossiere, and Audrey Vaundell.

As we left school for the summer, we were looking forward eagerly to our unforgettable Senior year, the climax of our Charlton High School career. The Memories promised by the Senior Play, Senior Supper, Washington Trip, Yearbook, Senior Banquet, and Graduation, were beckoning to us, so we ended our successful Junior Year with the knowledge that the best was yet to come.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

by Marguerite Silvestri

As proud and happy seniors, we began our final year with 64 eager students, and Mr. David Wellwood, Mr. Earl Babineau, and Mr. Herbert Stevens as our homeroom advisors. Ably led by our class officers, president--William Ball, vice-president--Mary Cavanaugh, secretary--Linda Harsha, and treasurer--Nancy Ide, we started with high hopes. We regretfully lost Pauline Bellerive, Russell Burlingame, Donna Madelle, and James Osborn; however, we won a bright addition --Margaret McGee.

We were especially proud of William Ball, Donna Franklin, and Letha Rosenquist, who made highest honors; and of Gail Dunn, Linda Harsha, Margaret Houle, Beatrice Pelletier, David Plancon, Mary Reardon, Donna Smeltzer, and Audrey Vaundell, who made honors.

The first of our fund-raising activities, our Senior Hop, directed by our class advisors, Mr. Earl Babineau, Mr. David Wellwood, and Mr. Herbert Stevens, proved to be a great social and financial success.

Soon it was time for our Senior Auction. The sunrise of this bright morning in October was followed by an even brighter sunset. With the full cooperation of all Senior members, and with the hard work of our Principal, Mr. William R. Ball, and of our class advisors, Mr. Earl Babineau, Mr. David Wellwood, and Mr. Herbert Stevens; and, last but not least, some of the Senior mothers - especially Mrs. Verna Hammond, who supervised our food sale, we made a sizeable profit for our treasury. We would like to thank especially our auctioneer, Mr. Axel Sorensen, who traveled a long way to help us.

The cast of our Senior Play, "The Desk Set", professionally directed by Miss Judith Blake, and Mr. William Taylor, did an exceptionally good job. Janet Dawson, our leading lady, portrayed an office manager with personal and personnel problems; Sally Lotti, Mary Cavanaugh, and Christine Fredericks acted as most efficient office secretaries in a reference library; William Ball and David Plancon did outstanding acting as our leading men. Donna Smeltzer and Dottie Terrill are to be complimented for their marvelous characterizations. The supporting roles included the following Seniors: Diane Dembkoski, Carl Nale, Nancy Ide, Emery Fitts, Margaret Houle, Judy Angell, Frances Chaplin, Donna Franklin, Alan Hamel, Linda Hammond Russell Ferguson, Margaret McGee, Brenda McGlinchey, and Paul Gaylord. We would like to thank Mrs. Sheila Glynn and all other teachers and friends who helped to make our play the success that it was.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Directed by principal William R. Ball and class advisors, Mr. Earl Babineau, Mr. David Wellwood, and Mr. Herbert Stevens, our last project, the annual Senior Supper, held February 12, 1966, was a great success.

With our treasury full and our hearts overflowing with pride and anxiety, our four-year dream finally became a reality. Our Washington trip will always be remembered as one of the grandest adventures in our high school career, for we now realize the meaning of the self-sacrifice and the rewards this trip has brought to us, and that our hard work and sincere efforts to make every project successful were well worth the wonderful memories they have given us.

As our four-year journey comes to a close, we, the class of 1966, wish to extend our sincere gratitude to all those who have so unselfishly given of themselves and their talents to help us through our high school career. We will always be deeply indebted to the following people: Mr. William R. Ball, our school principal; Mr. Earl Babineau and Mr. David Wellwood, our class advisors; Mrs. Mabel Fiske, our Yearbook advisor; Mrs. Emma Hammond, advisor of our class rings, Junior Prom, and Yearbook advertising; Miss Judith Blake and Mr. William Taylor, directors of our Senior Play; Mrs. Sheila Glynn, art director for our Prom and Play; Mrs. Alice Melkonian, music director; Mrs. Vera Bancroft, our former homeroom advisor; Mrs. Nancy Tossey, our National Honor Society advisor; the Charlton School Board; Mr. Robert Ewing, our superintendent; and all other faculty members; and, above all, our beloved parents for all their understanding, patience, guidance, and many hours of work for us--the class of 1966.

We Salute You!

Congratulations and the best of luck! We at Loring are proud of the part we have had in helping to make your classbook a permanent reminder of your school years, recording with photographs one of the happiest and most exciting times of your life! We hope that, just as you have chosen us as your class photographer, you will continue to think of Loring Studios when you want photographs to help you remember other momentous days to come! When you choose Loring portraits, you are sure of the finest craftsmanship at the most moderate prices!

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.

Congratulations!
